

The Biggs Museum is currently seeking high school volunteers to act as Assistant Camp Instructors for our three week long summer camp. Volunteers will be responsible for assisting the Camp Instructor with craft instruction and implementation; supervision of campers (age six to nine); daily set-up and clean-up; and other duties as assigned. You will assist the Camp Instructor in creating a fun, entertaining, engaging, educational, and safe environment for all camp participants. Camp activities include painting, drawing, and sculpting, among other crafts.

Schedule

- This volunteer position will run Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. from Monday, July 11th to Friday, July 29th

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Work with the Camp Instructor to implement educational activities related to each camp's theme
- Engage children with interactive activities
- Provide a safe, clean, and organized camp area
- Assist with the set-up and clean-up of the camp area each day

Qualifications:

We encourage applications from high school students interested in art, childcare, and education, but welcome students with varied interests.

Compensation:

This is a volunteer position but can be offered for credit for volunteer hours for school or other purposes.

Interested students should submit a resume and cover letter to the Curator of Education, Regina Lynch, at rlynch@biggsmuseum.org
