Biggs Picture Exhibition Opens Saturday, May 17th Featuring Over 70 Works of Regional Artists

Dover, DE (May 13, 2014) – On Saturday, May 17, 2014, from 1:00 – 4:00 p.m., the Biggs Museum of American Art will host an opening for the third installment of The Biggs Picture, a landscape competition and exhibition. This exhibition will present over 70 pieces of artwork in all media, such as painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, craft, and video, by competition winners who most successfully interpret the theme “Landscape”. The 49 artists displayed in the exhibition were selected by jurors Sharon Ewing, Director of the Gross McCleaf Gallery of Contemporary Realist Painting in Philadelphia, and Mary Tobias Putman, Delaware painter and recipient of the Hassam, Speicher, Betts and Symons Purchase Fund Award of the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Each work fit within at least one of these sub-themes:

Perceived Landscape: interpretations of actual spaces at particular times.

Imagined Landscapes: interpretations of spaces from the past, memory, make-believe, and/or the future.

Landscapes of the Mind: interpreting psychological states of being through creations of space.

The exhibition will run through July 20, 2014.
