Registration Now Open for Biggs Museum 2016 Summer ArtVenture Camps

Dover, DE (March 10, 2016) – The Biggs Museum of American Art today announced that registration is open for its 2016 Summer ArtVenture Camps. Have a budding artist at home? Tap into your child's creative side with Biggs Summer ArtVenture Camps! Each week campers will focus on a special theme and enjoy a week full of hands-on crafts. Camps run during the month of July and cost $150 or $125 for museum members (per camper, per week). Camps are for children ages six-nine.

Registration is required and camps fill up fast. To register, visit www.BiggsMuseum.org or call 302-674-2111 ext. 110.

2016 Camp Themes and Details

Color Explosion!

Monday, July 11- Friday, July 15, 2016

9 a.m. - Noon

Explore the many ways that artists in the Biggs collection use color. Campers will get a chance to try out some very colorful art projects of their own!

Bigg(s) Earth

Monday, July 18 - Friday, July 22, 2016

9 a.m. - Noon

Learn about the plants and animals depicted in the Biggs collection and the different ways people use natural resources to create art and furniture. Each day campers will create a different eco-centric craft!

Me, Myself, and I

Monday, July 25 - Friday, July 29, 2016

9 a.m. - Noon

This week campers will learn about the people and places that were important to the artists the Biggs collection by looking closely at their artwork. Then, they'll get a chance to write their own biography, create self-portraits, and portray the people and places important to them.
